

Spring is in the air!

Can you believe it is already March? We hope the first couple of months of 2021 have kept you safe and healthy. With the first day of spring right around the corner, brighter and warmer days are ahead of us. We are looking forward to seeing what the coming months have in store!

The "Texas Freeze" and Disaster Preparedness

Does your shelter have an organized plan in case of an unexpected disaster? Read our recent blog highlighting how the recent "Texas Freeze" stresses

Changes in Animal Rescues for The Better

Fostering animals, virtual adoptions, and virtual fundraising are on the rise even a year after the initial impact of the COVID-19 Pandemic. Read about how the importance of disaster and emergency preparedness.

More Info

Path to becoming a "Model Shelter"

PAWS (Panhandle Animal Welfare Society) is hosting an "Empty the Shelter" event in an effort to find caring homes for their current animals. This will allow the staff to reorganize, clean, and train to achieve a positive and healthy environment for the animals.

More Info

Volunteers are aiding in the evolution of animal shelter practices as we continue through uncertain times.

More Info

Local Emergency to Everyone's Emergency

This past month, Texas faced severe winter weather conditions for the first time in years, causing many shelters to have to evacuate for the safety of both their animals and staff. Luckily, the ASPCA came to the rescue!

More Info

Stay Connected With Us!

Call us: (800) 673-2558